

DAVID GUNDRUM

PRAYER LETTER

Ministry Transition Update

Greetings!

I pray that you are well and trusting in the Lord's sufficiency to meet all your needs and guide you as we march together toward our eternal home.

The Lord called me to ministry in 1985, and I served Him as a pastor in two Bible Fellowship Churches in Reading and Quakertown Pennsylvania for sixteen years. For the past twenty-five years I have served as the Director of Church Extension Ministries, the Mission arm of the BFC that evangelizes and plants new churches. During these twenty-five years the Lord gave us the joy and privilege of bringing twenty-one new churches into the BFC, with another two new churches being presented at next year's BFC Conference. God has richly blessed my ministry these past forty years despite my weaknesses. His grace has always been sufficient in my leadership and in my life. It is a joy and honor to be called of God and serve Him while involved with building His Kingdom.

In early 2026 I will be transitioning to a part-time position with the Bible Fellowship Church. The BFC Executive Director has asked me to be the Director of Expansion and Development for the BFC. I will be assisting the new Director of Church Extension Ministries with bringing non-BFC churches into the BFC and assisting our established BFC churches and BFC Regions with their efforts to plant daughter churches. In the area of development, I will assist our BFC Departments with fundraising.

Over these years you have faithfully prayed for me, my family, and my ministry, and you may have also been a financial supporter of my ministry. Please, continue to keep me in your prayers as I continue to serve the Lord and follow His lead in building His Kingdom for the next several years.

I would like to maintain my current financial support base and seek new partners who will support me in this position. If you currently give financially to my ministry, please consider continuing your financial support. If you are not a current financial supporter, please consider supporting me in building the Lord's Kingdom.

Enclosed is a response form to let me know you will be praying for me and if you decide to financially support me.

Sincerely in Christ's Love and Service,

David E. Gundrum

DIRECTOR OF EXPANSION AND DEVELOPMENT

In early 2026, I will transition to part-time Director of Expansion and Development for Church Extension Ministries and the Bible Fellowship Church. In this new role I will assist with:

- Connections: guiding independent churches to connect with the Bible Fellowship Church
- Daughter Churches: walking alongside BFC churches who are planting a daughter church
- Fundraising: helping the departments of the BFC with fundraising for special projects
